

FRIDAYS ON FOOT: INTERNATIONAL DISTRICT

ENGL 108 / SEC. H & I / SUMMER LEAP 2009 / OLDHAM & RUBASKY / CHANG & LEE

This week's Fridays on Foot is to Seattle's International District (ID). Hopefully, you will discover and encounter all sorts of new sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and experiences. While you are touring and exploring the ID, please fill out the map below as completely as possible: include street names, places of interest, important buildings, major landmarks, even the restaurant where you will be having a delicious lunch! Keep track of your locales by numbering them on the map below: ①②③④⑤⑥⑦⑧ and so on. Then, on the back of this sheet, 1) identify each location or landmark fully, 2) describe it briefly, and 3) explain its importance or your reaction to it. Mark and describe at least 12 different and interesting places.

Remember to 1) identify each location or landmark fully, 2) describe it briefly, and 3) explain its importance or your reaction to it. You should have no trouble recording at least ten different, interesting, and important places. Do not just list something at random; you must be able to express its significance.
