

The Descendants of John Dorcy, Civil War Soldier

compiled by
Wayne and Maureen (Dorcy) Hannah

We wish to thank all who have helped us compile this book. Several of the family have helped with their computer expertise, editing skills and above all encouragement. Many of the extended family have helped by sending information and pictures, most of which have been included.

In spite of all your help we take full responsibility for all mistakes. Please send written corrections in case we have a later printing.

Wayne and Maureen (Dorcy) Hannah
E170 Lakeway Dr.
Shelton, WA 98584-9576

Copyright 1996, Wayne and Maureen (Dorcy) Hannah

All Rights Reserved

Published by the authors

The authors hereby give permission to reproduce any portion of this book for non-commercial purposes, as long as complete reference to this document is given.

Made in the United States of America

The Descendants of John Dorcy, Civil War Soldier

Corrections, errors and omissions

Various errors made in spelling, grammar, etc. have been corrected in the master document, but are not listed in this errata sheet.

ERRATA

- Page 10 Sarah Marie Dorcy – Her death record in St. Clair county, MI states that she died in childbirth on 7 March, 1885, not of arsenic poisoning.
- Page 50 Documentation was found in Whatcom County court records - Marriage Book 9, page 228, confirming the fact that William Thomas Dorcy and Sylva Agatha Miller were married in a civil ceremony on 14 October, 1918 in Bellingham, WA. (This date may be the date the marriage was recorded at the court house. They were also married by Father Carmody at Sacred Heart Church in South Bellingham on 7 April, 1923.
- Page 73 Glen Edward Dorcy died 23 March 1995. Information from his family and from his obituary, printed in a Palm Desert, CA newspaper.
- Page 73 In May 2005 Olive Colleen (Dorcy) Cain's granddaughter, Colleen (Cain) Lovgren, sent us an announcement stating Olive's death as 6 Nov 1994, date of burial 16 Feb 2005 and date of placement of headstone 30 March 2005.
- Page 81 Patrick Bryan Achey has two additional children:
Kathleen Achey, Born September 1990 in Boston, MA.
Patrick Achey, Born November 1992 in Boston, MA.
according to his father, John Achey.
- Page 88 Mary Francis Bennet married Robert Grunhurd in California. He was killed in action over Munich, Germany in 1945. Information from herself.
- Page 143 Sean Patrick McGinnis, story on page 52, was left out of the index.

There is no end to this story,
for the legacy lives on
in our children's children
- into eternity.

Laura Theresa (Dorcy) King
1919 - 1994

Ireland

