

Adam M. Percival
7541 20th Avenue NE
Seattle, WA 98115
206-523-8147
freshlydead@home.com

Academic Background/Awards/Interests

- just graduated from Garfield High School (will attend Reed College this fall)
- class valedictorian at Garfield High School (4.0 grade point average)
- won ‘Outstanding Physics Student’ award at Garfield High School
- 2001 National Merit Scholarship Finalist
- 2001 Washington State Scholar
- ‘Best Secondary School Web Site’ award for Garfield High School Web site
- courses taken include advanced placement calculus, physics, chemistry and biology
- academic interests include computer science, chemistry, physics

Previous Work/Web Design Experience

- worked two months (summer 2000) for King County Metro doing site programming for King County Kidsweb (<http://www.metrokc.gov/dnr/kidsweb/>)
- worked two weeks (summer 2000) on design and programming for the University of Washington’s Applied Physics Laboratory (<http://www.apl.washington.edu>)
- designed and programmed Web site for Garfield High School Orchestra (<http://www.garfielдорchestra.org>)
- did design and programming for online version of Keep Our World Tobacco Free, a book featuring anti-smoking art by kids (<http://depts.washington.edu/ecttp/alcohol/advocacy.html>)
- did some debugging and maintenance for <http://www.teamread.com>
- worked on several projects no longer online, including designing and maintaining the Garfield High School site for two years

Software/Computer Language Experience

- familiar with Adobe Photoshop, Macromedia Dreamweaver, Macromedia Fireworks and word processing programs
- some knowledge of Macromedia Flash
- familiar with HTML and JavaScript
- limited familiarity with Perl and Java
- familiar with Mac OS (fair knowledge of Windows as well)